

Student Name: _____

Task Performance Date(s): _____

STK-402 Backscratchers 	Skilled Displayed Independently	Skill Displayed Consistently with Verbal or Visual Prompts	Skill Displayed Consistently with physical guidance	Skill Displayed Inconsistently with Verbal or Visual Prompts	Skill Displayed Inconsistently with physical guidance	Skill Not Displayed despite prompts and guidance
Distinguishes the two task components from each other
Uses pincer grasp to grip backscratchers
Recognizes four compartments for stacking backscratchers
Uses hand-eye coordination, finger dexterity, and wrist movement to place backscratchers into a small compartment
Uses finger dexterity to stack backscratchers on top of one another
Grips and releases components intentionally
Uses both hands simultaneously to assemble the task
Transfers items to new locations
Uses sensory input to maintain appropriate proprioceptive feedback
Self checks personal progress during task

Student Work Habits - Check the appropriate description

During the task the student:

- Was eager and worked hard to complete the task
- Was willing to attempt the task but needed verbal cues
- Was willing to attempt the task but needed physical guidance
- Was uncooperative or unwilling to attempt the task

Anecdotal Notes:
